3-18-99

The graveside service for Alice Schwab, 83, of Wetonka and formerly of Groton, was held Monday at the Groton Union Cemetery. The Rev. Anne Maldoon officiated. Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel of Groton was in charge of arrangements.

She died Wednesday, March 3, 1999 at the Bethesda Home in Aberdeen.

Alice Hohlen was born September 4, 1915 to Klaus and Sandra (Niekila) Hohlen at Schinook, Alberta, Canada. As a child, she moved with her family to the Hecla area. She married Clarence Hubert at Hecla in 1935. They made their home in Hecla. In the mid-1940s she moved to Aberdeen and worked at Siebrecht Florists and Taylor Hatchery. She also did house cleaning.

She married Norman Schwab on November 19, 1958 at Ortonville, Minn. They made their home on a farm near Mina. They later moved to a farm north of Groton and he worked on the Dale Sour farm. They then retired and moved into Groton. He died in 1992, and she then made her home with her daughter in Wetonka. She had been a resident of Bethesda Home since November 1998.

She enjoyed sewing and quilting.

Survivors include one son, Lloyd (Kathy) Hubert of Stillwater, Minn.; one daughter, Donna (Larry) Erdmann of Wetonka; one sister, Myrtle Dinger of Hecla; seven grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, both husbands, two brothers and four sisters.
